

Creative Communities Industry Event

You and your guest are invited to Birmingham City University's Creative Communities event. The Graduate Showcase will feature original and stimulating work from the University's emerging creative talent, which crosses through the disciplines of traditional art & design, animation, photography and visual communications. The event will be opened with a keynote speech from David Harris, Executive Creative Director, Wunderman, known in the industry for his creative insight and his passion for ideas.

Date: Tuesday 16 June 2009

Time: 6.00pm Reception; Show commences 7.00pm

Location: Birmingham Institute of Art & Design,
Gosta Green, Corporation Street,
Birmingham, B4 7DX

RSVP: Charmaine Stint, Corporate Events Manager

Tel: 0121 331 6895

Email: charmaine.stint@bcu.ac.uk

GRADUATE
SHOWCASE

FUNGI
VISUAL ARTS

New Generation Arts Graduate Showcase 12-27 June 2009

Birmingham City University celebrates the talent of its emerging graduates through a series of New Generation Arts Festival Graduate Shows, providing the students with an opportunity to showcase their innovative, dynamic and creative projects, whilst demonstrating their professional capability to a wider audience.

The Festival provides a platform for Birmingham's next generation of artists to collaborate on original, vibrant and inspired projects within a range of areas including art, design and music.

For more information on New Generation Arts please visit the website:

www.newgenerationarts.co.uk

GRADUATE
SHOWCASE

About Birmingham City University

Birmingham City University is more than just a university. Our experience, resources and knowledge in the creative arts continue to play a vital role in the economic and cultural vibrancy of the region.

Discover more about the
'most in demand' University:
www.bcu.ac.uk